One man. one vote ruling may speed beat realignment

As a result of Monday's ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court, the one man, one vote doctrine may apply sooner in Hancock County than many people anticipated.

The 5-3 decision was written by Justice Byron White, and held that the Constitution "forbids the election of local government officials from districts of disparate size."

Powell Glass, jr., publisher of the Sea Coast Echo and a plaintiff in the Hancock redistricting suit, said he has conferred with his attorney, Upton Sisson of Gulfport, about means of implementing locally the decision.

Sisson advised that as soon as he has an opportunity to study the opinion in the Midland County, Tex., case, he will advise his clients on what course of action would be proper under the circumstances. He noted that the special threejudge federal court assigned the Hancock case still retains jurisdiction. The current board of super-

The old beat boundaries woro unchanged and Beat 5--covering Bay St. Louis and Waveland--continues to contain como two-thirds of the county's population but has only one supervisor.

Russell J. Elliott, the new Beat 5 member and president of the board, said Wednesday he and his colleagues haven't had a chance yet to consider the Midland County decision and will probably ask their attornoy, Joseph Benvenutti, to look into it next week. He and Dolph Kollar of Beat 2 are to be in Jackson today for a meeting of tho Mississippi Supervisors Assn. and hoped to talk over the situation with the state attornsygeneral's office.

Elliott said personally ho would like to see the county redistricting and the supervisors still be elected at-largo. He didn't indicate what type of. redistricting he had in mind but said he would not like to see tho "forked lightning" lines adopted. That was one plan the old supervisors submitted to tho federal court and provided equal cat of noticing of notice that five beats fanning out from Bay-Waveland.

A strong pitch for the youth of Waveland by recreational director Mrs. George Stelz resulted in a lengthy discussion by Waveland's Town Council Tuesday night on what could be done to improve the Elwood Memorial ball park.

Town clerk C.O. Dufour also read a letter from the L&N Railroad Co, indicating its intention of discontinuing another passenger train, the Hummingbird which travels from New Orleans to northern points and back, which council summarily dismissed, agreeing that from past experience nothing could be done to retain the service.

Economy was the keynote of most of the remainder of the meeting. The monthly financial report read by Dufour indicated that investments approved by Council had resulted in considerable savings in interest money. Of the recent $300,000 re venue bond issue for construction of water and gas mains to the newly annexed area, $200,000 was invested in 90day federal notes and $50,000 in 60-day federal notes at 5.36 per cent interest. This money will not be needed for the loan periods and will now cost the town only .12 per cent interest for these periods, the bond issuo cost being 5.5 per cent.

All but one statement for current expenses were approved, that being a minor misunderstanding regarding a timo and rim, but alderman Hormon Yarborough objected strongly

CFBCG shows ils ignorance of facts

Reprinted on this page is a letter sugged by George S. Allison, Secretary, Committee for Better City Govern-CECCE Distrib as secessed on Monday. As think certain errors in this letter should be spelled out. Since these some people are presumbly communicating to other citixens the alleged facts contained in this letter we are going to coment on various allegations of it

In Para. I the letter lays the defeat of the street improvence band used to "(a) poor management of city affinites." and "(b) lack of confidence in our administrathan?. We readily actinowledge that lack of confidence in the city admissipation had much to do atth the defeat best about back of comfidence was stured up through misleading advertising and otherwisely the signatories. There his been no evidence of which we are aware that poor mongeness of city affairs is involved. In fact, the Courmittee for Better City Government never pointed to one certail fact of poor mangement in its too successful campurpos to defeat the city administration's proposals

Under Para. 2. Financial Condition of the City the letter implies that in some way the funds of the $3 millico severage bond issue have been misspen: The bond balders would be more interested in this question than our citizens and the implication is that the city fathers have misused these funds without anyone from the committee having lepted into the matter. As a matter of fact the city, under the terms of its board indentures, is reqcured to famish an applit by a certified public accountant of the operation of the city's utilities valer, gas, severage). In codition, it is our understanding that the federal government will make an audit of the construction costs tower towers.

Sub-gramgangth b under Para. 2 asks for an audit by a certified public accommon of "all income and expendincres of all facets of the city government". Now, this information is asked for with so evidence of irregularities even being alleged. It so happens that on Monday night at the suggestion of the Citizens Advisory Committee. Myer Je Scalede and Comissioner Varren Traub said aboy would have this audit performed. Thatever the cost. Chathar'in he SHODD on S5000, in will of course have to be when from the sums previously budgeted for other expenses. Again, this sub-paragraph is a gratuitous insult.

Under Para, 3, Projection of Future Increased Revences, the second control to 8200,000 amorally and they list six categories of possible increased mues. The budget of the city for the period Crace 1, 1967 strough September 30, 1968, totals $292,555.512 Mis Coviously shows that the $200,000 figure this fluther of an LSD dream. The secret dream construction for JE, "Rebote from state on butterstecd encopion from amened area". These reference a basically aimst enception go directly to a school system and ear the city administration. East her by the school blank for the current year is $51.000 from this source. There is, bowever, a similar rebate to the city which is the pass the occurred to something less than SSCID. As a comer of alcost universal rule municipalities.

counties, selvel districts, etc., budget then funds on the basis el camerand revenus and no allovance is made for capital improve ages. For instance, the Boy St. Louis Expanses Municipal School District is prohibited by ha from speeding my count revenues for capital impweenens. We are not familiar with any such prohibition to Bay St. Letis and Vaveland but the principal is sound. This is could appear chan which the dissident should Dre des see berent.

The leaves concludes with the hope that the city surets can be proved viction the accessity of any additional city will act view my additional funds for use by the preesca chinistraine and for that reason we was find some exes to do the jet did frads now available". the points and of the points and questions which have been discussed by our group in connection with not only the otrest and droiness problem, but also the consequent of the effeire of the City of Bay St. Louis as follow:

- 1. RECENT DEFEAT OF 2 BOND ISSUE PROPOSALS.
 - a) Poor management of City affairs. b) Lack of confidence in City administration.
- 2. FINANCIAL CONDITION OF THE CITY: (Cost of the audit would be well justified)
 - a) Authoritative report and financial analysis
 - of the $3,000,000 occarage bond issue. Audit by a C.P.A. and financial report of all income and expenditures of all facets of the city government.
- 3. PROJECTION OF FUTURE INCREASED REVENUES: (It is possible this would amount to $200,000 annually)
 - Increased Sales Tax
 - Increased Ad Valorem Tames due to annexation. Increased Ad Valorem Tames due to increased
 - assessments and planned future increases. Rebate from road taxes collected by county
 - in annexed area. e) Rebate from State on homestead exemption from
 - annemed area.
 - f) Franchise and other taxes to city by annexed

We are hopeful that the audit will reflect that sufficient funds are available to resume the repairs of City streets as begun in 1967, without the necessity of any additional

We have further concluded that the taxpayers of the City will not wote any additional funds for use by the present administration and for that reason we must find some means to do the job with funds now available.

Respectfully submitted,

No. At this stage, one man only can "clop Kennedy" within the Democratic party. That man is Lyndon Johnson. Those who hate Bobby--and their name is Legion -- vill not hesitate to toll him so.

The second of the two roasons is more subtle. To an extreordimry degree, Mr. Johnson has evidenced an acute avarenses of his own place in history. He tends to think biocraphically. Time after time. he evokes his humble beginning as the son of a West Texas temmi farmer. From the moment he took his cath of office. he has felt an awful judgment waiting on his stewardship. He is constantly asking, "What will history say of me?"

The theme is a dominating part of his life. "Every night when I go to bed." he has remarked, "I ask myself 'What did we do today that we can point to for generations to come?" " He broods in a letcocilely to Bobby? No, sir. R ter to Luci in May of 1967 to transfirm. The had been "Your daddy may so down in sewing machines

WASHINGTON The democratic upsurge in Czechoslovakia-if fant is opposity what it is -- is a development of tremendous mortanco to the United States.

It is another earthquake in the communist world whose SSIPPLE will run far beyond the borders of Czechoslovakia. It already has caused Leonid Brezhnev, communist boss of Soviet Union, to call in the Czech ambassador to Moscow and wo him a stern two-hour lecture on the dangers of permitting by challenge to communist rule. East Germany's reaction incates this deep concern is shared by old-line Reds outside Russia.

onographic Some weeks ago this column was told by Yugoslavs, the enest analysts of what's happening inside the communist prld, that if an industrial country such as Czechoslovakia gan acting independently of the Kremlin, it would shake the hole communist structure. That is exactly what is happening. Yugoslavia itself, of course, was the first to break the chains inding it to Moscow. Romania has been veering away from a rict Moscow line for some years. Poland and Hungary and now echoslovakia have followed suit, leaving only East Germany ad Bulgaria still completely subservient to Kremlin direction. But Czechoslovakia is not yet ready to try to escape the mmunist orbit entirely: it needs the Red army for protection ainst any revival of Naziism in West Germany. This spectre outimes to be the most solidifying factor among the smaller mmunist nations of Eastern Europe. Thus most of them, while elding freedom to determine their own domestic policies and ograms, still lean on Russia in foreign policy and defense. At the same time, there are ties of historic friendship with

Inited States which are slowly reviving. Czechoslovakia, for example, owes its existence as a nation the United States, having been established after President podrow Wilson insisted that the peace settlement following ld War I include the right or self-determination. And many zechs remember this. They also remember that the United ntes helped free them a second time after their country had an seized by Hitler in 1939. And their love of freedom and mocracy has survived the past 20 years of communist con-

Poland also has strong US ties. In Poland, about one out of very three Poles you meet has a close relative in Chicago or laveland or Detroit or Buffalo. And there are many Romanians Hungarians in this country who similarly are tied to their countries and serve as beacons of hope to their relatives

Thus the current Czechoslovak upheaval, remote as it may em to some Americans, may be of vast importance as another on of how the once monolithic communist structure is crumbl-

Abrams came to Washington from the First Corps area more Gen. William Westmoreland had sent him to oversee the title for Khe Sanh, and will succeed Westmoreland in July when ostmoreland becomes Army Chief of Staff.

During the secret strategy sessions in the White House, brams argued that the North Vietnamese attack cannot be topped unless their supply lines in Laos are cut. He also reoried that the allied offensive west of Saigon had failed, behase the enemy's main forces simply withdrew behind the ambodian border.

Pepression memories

The Senate's action last week intacking a textile import quota the omnibus tax bill is a disturbing example of how shortwited and short-memoried our lawmakers can be. And it Pears likely that even more quotas will be imposed.

The rider, introduced by Sen. Ernest Hollings, D-S.C., used by a 55-31 vote, achieved by a log-rolling deal. Sen. ince Hartke, D-Ind., wants a similar quota on steel imports. I state senators want quotas on some oil imports. So they all inged up with southern textile senators to put over the Holhas amendment, and in turn will have southern support for pir own quota bills.

Such approaches to a complex international problem are Pscially dangerous to the United States right now because already are in deep trouble over our balance or payments fletts, which is one reason for the recent gold crists and the ss of faith in the dollar.

They also are dingerous because for years now our foreign Citators have been hassling with the European Common arket and other gations trying to work out systems to freep illed States emports flowing abroad, and have made progress Outremely delicate and complex compromises and adjustones by both sides. Now the senate has come along with its aport quotas idea which threatens to destroy all that has been complished over migny long years. World trade is not a one-way deal, as has been said before. the United States sells more abroad than it imports; the export argin is about $5 billion a year. If we lost that margin by aving other nations but restrictions on our products, we would ont, from Fage 4-A. mmority report, 85 members voted for the rules suspension. only 19 voted against the motion. After a short debate and the passage of one significant amendment, the resolution was passed by the House by a vote of 85 to 26. The amendment which was approved provides that the Legislature can by twothirds vote extend the limited session for a period of 30 days. This is designed to allow more time if it is felt necessary by the vast majority of the Legislature.

The measure must be considered by the Senate where a two-thirds vote is required for passage. If approval is given in the Upper Chamber, the proposed change in the Constitution will be submitted to the people for a popular vote this vear.

Advocates of the measure have long argued that the implementation of such a change would allow more efficient State Fovernment. The empenditures of the State departments would be subject to review every year instead of every two years and would result in more orderly operation of these agencies. The Legislature could more effoctively plan its work and would. probably remain in eassion for a shorter time. The records of the Legislature show that als though there are regular sessions only every two years now, only once in the last 20 years has the Logislature failed to. moot in special session in the da yours.

1. Yes, you are eligible. The old War G.I. Bill went into effect June 1, 1966 and it provides that any veteran who served on active duty for more than 18 days, any part of which occured after Jan. 31, 1955, and who was discharged or released from service under conditions other than dishonorable or for a service connected disability, is eligible.

Q. This April will be the first time since I got out of service that I will file an income tax return. I am receiving disability compensation and an educational assistance allowance. Must I report these payments on my income tax?

A. No. Compensation for a service-connected disability and educational assistance allowance are tax exempt benefits. Other veteran benefits that

The Veterans Administra- are tax exempt and need not be reported are subsistance payments for vocational rehabilitation training, grants for 'wheelchair' homes and automobile equipment for the severely disabled, payments to surviving dependents of deceased veterans, and compensation allowances for dependents or certain disabled veterans.

Q. I understand that once payments to my beneficiary, wife, on my G.I. insurance policy contract have begun, she cannot change the plan of settlement. Is this true? Suppose her needs change suddenly after my death, what can she do?

A. Formerly once payments had begun on a selected option settlement of a G.I. insurance contract, the beneficiary could not change this option, However, under new VA regulations now in effect, your banaficiary, wife, may change to a more advantageous option if the change is requested within one year of her initial choice of option or her health has not changed during that interval.

> First softball news of the season is good -- for Trapani's Knock-Knocks, that is. Trapani's men got up early Sunday morning and headed for Slidell, La., where they engaged in a 15-hour marathon softball tournament betwoen 10 of Ray Bionvonu was justly the area's top teams hailing from New Orleans, Slidoll, Pied saed baseq ruot ent to buorq cayune, Poarl River, Hammond, cought up dorden Alverthic past Mandoville and Bay St. Louis. In the finale that night with both teams so tired the bat boy had to help the batters to the plate, the Knock-Knocks ran up d against McNeil in three innings when the McNeil players figured they had had enough and decided that man's best friend is his bed. They forfeited the game and the Traps trudged wearily home with another championship trophy.

The power hitting of Larry Favre, Mike Strong and Dusty Rhodes proved far too strong for the competition, Rhodes and Strong combined accounting for seven home runs, one triple, three doubles and three singles. Strong barely edged Rhodes for the tournament's most valuable player award.

Superb twirling by Gus Aime and Vernon Garriga combined with some brilliant fielding, especially by Eddie Peterson in left, held opposing teams to three consecutive shutouts.

We offer deepest sympathy to the Rufus Dawsey family. At the Pearlington session of the Chamber of Commerce last week, Lucien Kidd, civil defense director, offered wifely tips, on interesting movie and survival distributed Des Egan, our Pearlington bullword, asked for less too Dall and more help from Congress in Hancock's civil defense program. He commended Kidd on a job well done. Woodrow Cole reported on the highway beautifis cation program. Funds are available for a park in our area and we urge support so that this much needed development will not "come a cropper!"

visit to the Mulatto bayou project and the road, when completed should be a joy. The woods on either side are a profusion of indigenous beauties, magnolia, holly, yupon, palmetto, stately oaks and wild flowers of every variety. Isn't it a pity that Mississippi didn't take advantage of the generosity of International Paper Co. when it offered Laurel Wood Plantation in 1960° This home occupied by J.B. Saucier and J. F. H. Claiborne, was built in 1800 and was in fine shape until vandals destroyed it a few years ago. Even more despicable is the desecration of the Indian mounds bequeathed to us by the predecessors who left behind their simple artifacts, their dead and their trust, which we have violated!

People in Pearlington are talking about politics, Vietnam, the many stray dogs, Marina East, which is fabulous and the busy, busy deputies.
